

ROGIET COMMUNITY COUNCIL EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

(Adopted 10th July 2019)

The success of Rogiet Community Council depends on the work of its members and employees. Capitalising on what is unique about individuals and drawing on their different perspectives and experiences will add value to the way that the Council manages its affairs on behalf of its members.

The Council will constantly strive to create a productive environment, representative of and responsive to different cultures and groups, where everyone has an equal opportunity to contribute to the organisation's objectives.

Members and employees all have a responsibility to embrace and support this vision and must continue to challenge behaviour and attitudes that prevent the organisation from achieving its vision. Using fair, objective and innovative employment practices, the Council's aim is to ensure that:

- All members, employees and potential employees are treated fairly and with respect at all stages of their membership or employment.
- All members and employees have the right to be free from harassment and bullying of any description, or any other form of unwanted behaviour, whether based on sex, trans-gender status, marital status, civil partnership status, pregnancy, race, disability, age, political or religious belief or sexuality.
- All members and employees have an equal chance to contribute and to achieve their potential, irrespective of any defining feature that may give rise to unfair discrimination.

GENDER

The Council is fully committed to:

- challenging gender stereotypes
- supporting employees in balancing their life at work and at home
- supporting employees who become pregnant and taking active steps to facilitate their return to work after maternity leave.

TRANS-GENDER STATUS

People who plan to undergo, are undergoing, or have undergone gender reassignment are protected against all forms of discrimination and harassment. The Council will take positive steps to support a trans-gender person and ensure they are treated with dignity and respect.

MARITAL STATUS

People are treated fairly and equally within the organisation irrespective of their marital, civil partnership or family status.

RACE

The Council is committed to:

- challenging racial stereotypes
- understanding, respecting and valuing different racial and cultural backgrounds and perspectives.

DISABILITY

The abilities of disabled people are recognised and valued within the organisation through:

- focusing on what people can do rather than on what they cannot
- challenging stereotypes about people with disabilities
- making appropriate adjustments in the workplace to help people with disabilities achieve their full career potential.

AGE

Age diversity is promoted and valued through challenging age stereotyping.

RELIGIOUS BELIEF

People are treated fairly in the organisation irrespective of their religious beliefs and practices by recognising individuals' freedom of belief and right to protection from intolerance and persecution.

HIV

Discrimination against an employee or potential employee on grounds that he or she has, or is thought to have, HIV or AIDS is not acceptable, and confidentiality will be respected in line with the wishes of an individual with HIV or AIDS.

SEXUALITY

People are treated fairly in the organisation irrespective of their sexuality through:

- respecting different lifestyles
- challenging negative stereotypical views.
