Main Issues in the area for the month of May are:

- At approximately 6pm on Wednesday 20th May 2026 Gwent Police were called to an assault in Chestnut drive, Rogiet. During the evening, there was a significant police response in the street. A 51-year-old male was arrested on suspicion of assault and remanded in custody. The victim was taken to the Grange University Hospital where they were treated for their injuries.
Following the incident, there have been increased reassurance patrols in the area.

Good Work

- Regular patrols have been taking place in the community on foot and on the police bike, targeting Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB) Hotspots.

PLISMONA CYMDOGAETH – Y NEWYDDION DIWEDDARAF NEIGHBOURHOOD POLICING UPDATE

- PCSO Tobie van Arkel attended Rogiet Community Junction for a Police Surgery. There was significant engagement with members of the public, some of whom raised concerns about parking on the pavement, which is an issue being addressed.

Where to find us:

- Police surgeries will be held at Rogiet Community Junction on
- 25th June and 16th July. These dates will be published on our Facebook page, on our Neighbourhood Matters and a poster has been created for display at the Community Junction.
